

THE CADIZ SENTINEL.

EDITED BY L. HARPER.

CADIZ, OHIO:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 30, 1844.

To the Democratic VOTERS OF HARRISON COUNTY.

On Friday the 1st of November, the question will be decided, whether the State of Ohio will cast her 23 Electoral votes for JAMES K. POLK or HENRY CLAY. The majority for Mordecai Bartley over David Tod is only a fraction over 1000 votes.—The federal party polled a larger vote for Governor than they possibly can for President in Ohio. Henry Clay, with all his political heresies and immoralities, never was and never will be popular in Ohio. Let the Democrats but cast the same vote on next Friday they did at the Governor's Election, and we will carry the state. But, fellow-democrats WE MUST DO MORE—WE MUST INCREASE THAT VOTE. In many counties in the state owing to divisions in our ranks, our vote was unusually small. This will not be the case on Friday. In Hamilton county the democrats pledged themselves to increase the vote 500. Old Richland promises to give Polk 2500 majority, and she can do it. Stark will increase her majority some 300 at least; and the Columbiana boys promise to do the same. In other counties, where local difficulties existed in the democratic ranks, so as to prevent a full turn out, we shall have a largely increased vote. But independent of these changes, which may be safely calculated upon in favor of James K. Polk we believe each county in the state will claim the honor of increasing their Democratic vote.

ONE VOTE IN EACH TOWNSHIP of an increase will give the State to the Democracy. Cannot our friends exert themselves on Friday, and see that Not a Democratic voter remains at home. Have committees appointed who will attend to this matter. Let conveyances be sent after the sick and the aged, and have them taken back to their homes again. Committees should be appointed in each township to REMAIN AT THE POLLS all day, and distribute the Democratic Electoral Tickets, and see that the Roorback Federal coons do not impose

Fraudulent Tickets upon democrats. Democrats should also stay at the windows to challenge the vote of every person, whose right to vote is questionable. At the state Election the federal inspectors received the votes of minors in many townships, without a full investigation of their qualifications as electors. And we are just informed that in one township the federal judges would receive the ballots of democratic voters, and after they had left the polls, would throw the ballot under the table, instead of depositing them in the box, under the pretext that the persons offering to vote were not legally qualified! Under our election law, such conduct would send the judges to the penitentiary; and we are sorry we did not learn their names as we would certainly publish them to the world.

A man's right to vote must be decided when he offers his ballot, when he can face the judges, and bring forward witnesses to prove his qualifications, and not after he has left the place of voting.

There is no time to loose and every democrat must consider himself as a committee of vigilance from this until Friday evening. It may be that the Electoral vote of Ohio will make the President. The federalists, conceal it as they will, are chop fallen and disappointed; and the sensible men among them have no hopes of carrying the state for Henry Clay. Pick up any federal sheet before the election, and you will at once see, that our opponents confidently calculated upon carrying the state by a majority of 20,000 votes. They got ABOLITIONISTS and MORAL MEN to vote for governor who will not go Clay!

This they are now certain of, and hence their only hope of success is by concocting and circulating horrible "COCK AND BULL STORIES" about British Gold, and INFAMOUS FORGERIES in regard to James K. Polk branding his slaves with the initials of his name! Desperate must that cause be, when such shameful deceptions are resorted to.

DEMOCRATS!

You have every thing to encourage you; success has crowned the labors of your brethren in other states—victory after victory has perched upon our standard in every direction. Will Ohio not also resolve to be Democratic? WE CAN IF WE WILL! Let CLAY have Kentucky, Connecticut, Massachusetts and little British Rhode Island, but let us carry all the rest for Polk and Dallas!

THE LAST CARD OF THE Roorback Federalists!

MORE VILLAINY AND FALSEHOOD!
FOUL AND INFAMOUS ATTEMPT TO DECEIVE THE ABOLITIONISTS!

The federal party see defeat staring them in the face! They see the hand writing upon the wall, and they tremble as did Belshazzar! They have resorted to falsehood after falsehood, and forged for forgery, to deceive the people; but all their villainies have been discovered and exposed. Conscious of their own weakness, they now clearly see that they cannot carry Ohio without the aid of the Abolitionists, and hence they have, on the very eve of the Election, when they think it is too late for contradiction, invented INFAMOUS LIES in regard to a coalition between James G. Birney and the democrats, so as to induce the whig portion of the abolitionists to vote for Henry Clay. Why was this discovery not made sooner? Why was it circulated on the wings of the wind on the very eve of the Ohio and Pennsylvania elections. But now the federal Roorbacks have started on a new scent! and they positively allege that James G. Birney has expressed himself favorable to the Annexation of Texas!!!! Now, isn't that rather too hard a lie to be swallowed by any man of common sense?

We care not what course the abolitionists as a party take; but as a public journalist, opposed as we are, to all manner of trickery and deception we are determined that even the abolitionists shall not be imposed upon. Mr. Birney has, in two different letters addressed to the Editors of the New York Tribune, denied, in the most unequivocal manner, that he has any connection with the Democratic party; and we have not a doubt, but that he will nail to the counter the latest Roorback story in regard to his favoring the annexation of Texas. In truth, any man who is acquainted with Mr. Birney's opinions will only laugh at this most preposterous and foolish story.

But it remains to be seen if the Liberty party are going to swallow down and believe all these abominable lies, in regard to their candidate sprung upon them with the suddenness of a steel trap, on the eve of the election, by the supporters of the ASHLAND SLAVEHOLDER, DUELLIST, GAMBLER AND PROFANE SWEARER. In the name of Justice and common honesty, what claims has Henry Clay upon the Liberty party for their votes? None whatever. Is it possible, then, that they will support the greatest enemy their cause has in the United States? We trust not.

Roorback in Harrison County.

We must once again, and for the last time, caution the Democracy of Harrison county, against the lies and frauds and forgeries, which are circulated by the Roorback coons of Cadiz, with the most unblushing effrontery. It astounds us that men who wish to preserve a reputation for honesty and veracity, could be guilty of telling lies of the most deep and damning character against James K. Polk, for the purpose of deceiving honest but unsuspecting persons. We are now told that the same legal gentleman, who, with sanctimonious sincerity, told the citizens of Monroe and Franklin townships, that if they voted the Democratic county ticket, their farms would be taken from them,—has been circulating the lie far and near that if James K. Polk is elected there will be a war between the United States and Mexico, and that every young man in Harrison county, who is able to bear arms, will be enlisted!!!! This INFAMOUS LIE is only equal to that circulated in 1840, that Mr. Van Buren was going to establish a STANDING ARMY, and that men would have to march from Ohio to New Jersey to perform military duty! The man who would circulate such lies as the above, must believe that the people are as great fools as himself is knave! We wonder that he is not afraid that heaven's judgments will overtake him, and strike him dead, while the black and horrible lies are coming from his polluted lips.

IRISHMEN AND GERMANS!

Can you support the Federal ticket, after you are convinced that that party have formed a union with the Church-burning Natives, to deprive you of the right to vote until you are 21 years in this country? The Democrats are your only real friends. If Henry Clay is elected, you may expect a revival of old John Adams' Alien and Sedition Laws; for the Federal Nations of the present day are aiming at that object, and they boast of it in New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore. Vote for James K. Polk, for he is the friend of those who leave the oppressions of Europe, and seek a shelter in this "land of the free and home of the brave."

VOTERS OF OHIO READ! READ!!

HENRY CLAY'S Profanity and insult to Ladies on board the Steamboat down the Ohio River last spring, PROVEN by a devoted Preacher of the Gospel, and an eye witness.

We published in the Sentinel some time since a letter from Mr. Cyrus McNeely of Green township, in this county, in relation to Henry Clay's gross immorality, indecency and profanity on board of a steam boat, on the Ohio river. The statement of Mr. McNeely is more than substantiated by the following letter from the Rev. Hugh Forsyth, of Fairview, Guernsey county, O., to the Rev. S. Findley of Lexington, Richland county, both of whom are well known to most of the citizens of Cadiz, as very intelligent and highly respectable citizens and most exemplary and devoted Christians. Both of these clergymen are whigs. Those who know the Rev. Mr. Forsyth will at once say that the fullest confidence may be placed in what he below details. The federal papers are publishing white-washing certificates of Henry Clay's moral character from the Rev. Mr. Bascom and the Rev. Alexander Campbell, which prove just nothing at all! Mr. Campbell states that Henry Clay presided as Moderator, in the debate between himself and the Rev. Mr. Rice, and that he has seen him in Church, and therefore he comes to the very sage conclusion that because Henry Clay did not play cards while sitting as moderator, or utter profane language in the house of God, he must be a moral and upright man! Mr. Campbell says further if Henry Clay is an immoral and profane man, it should not operate against him in the minds of Christians, as all our Presidents have been profane men! Oh, what an argument, for a Preacher of the Gospel to use! The clergyman who would certify that Henry Clay is free from immorality, profanity and licentiousness, is unquestionably in full favor with the Devil! Oh, what a fearful account he will have to render at the Great Day.—But to the letter of the Rev. Hugh Forsyth:—

FAIRVIEW, GUERNSEY CO., O. July 2, 1844.

Dear Friend:—Yours of June ult. came duly to hand. You wish me to write you the particulars of my late boat voyage, so far as they relate to the Hon. H. Clay. I have no hesitation in doing so, inasmuch as it is important that every person should know the character of the persons who are candidates for the highest office in the gift of the American people. On Thursday evening 16th of May last, I took a passage for Cincinnati, aboard "the Little Pilot," then at Wheeling. Henry Clay was aboard the same boat, and traveled with us from Wheeling to Maysville, Ky. I had of course, a fair opportunity to hear him converse, and witness his demeanor. And must say that I saw and heard things with which I was much disgusted. On the evening of the 17th he engaged in a conversation with a gentleman and lady on the subject of Slavery. In this conversation he made use of profane language. Some of his interrogatories he commenced in the following way:—What the Devil, say. But that was not the worst. I heard him distinctly confirm one of his assertions with the oath by G—d! Two or three persons on the boat told me that they heard him make use of this oath two or three times during the conversation. I heard him but once. I did not however, hear all of the conversation. I heard a vulgar expression drop from his lips, which astonished me, inasmuch as there were perhaps a dozen respectable looking ladies, (and I know some of them were respectable) listened attentively to the conversation. The gentleman who was conversing with Mr. Clay, had occasion to make use of the term manhood, when speaking of the slaves. Mr. Clay afterwards remarked in substance as follows: "I do not know what you mean by the term manhood, when you apply it to the slaves. But sir, the slaves have their manhood, as properly as we have, and I do not know but they have a little more manhood than we have. They can eat more, and work more, and get more children than any of you." The last clause I noticed very distinctly. So much for what I heard. I saw one or two things I did not like. Mr. Clay was accompanied by a son of his a young man who appeared to be about twenty years of age. He may have been older, but he did not appear so. This young man played at cards a large portion of his time on Friday, while his father looked on, and appeared to be interested in the game. These things I saw and heard and they convinced me that Mr. Clay has been a very immoral man, and that though his head is now blossoming for the grave he retains many, if not all of his old wicked habits. In 1840 I voted the whig ticket. And am yet inclined to favor whig measures and principles. But Henry Clay is too bitter a pill for me to swallow.

Very respectfully yours,
HUGH FORSYTH.

REV. S. FINDLEY, JR.

The Mansfield Shield and Banner of this week which first gave publicity to the Rev. Mr. Forsyth's letter, contains the following testimony of Rev. James Johnson, of Mansfield, as to the character of Rev. Forsyth.

MANSFIELD, O., October 22, 1844.

Sir:—In answer to your inquiry whether I am acquainted with Rev. Hugh Forsyth of Fairview and what character he sustains as a moral public teacher, I reply that I have been acquainted with Mr. F. for several years past, and know that he is regarded as a popular preacher—is entitled and admitted to a seat in all our judicatories, and his truth and veracity I have never heard impugned.

Very respectfully, Yours, &c.
JAMES JOHNSON.

GOV. T. W. DORR

Is still lingering in confinement in the Rhode Island Penitentiary, because he was guilty of the crime of joining with the Democracy of that State, to abolish the British Constitution of King Charles, and endeavoring to incorporate in its stead a Democratic form of Government. If Henry Clay is elected, Gov. Dorr will have to linger out his life, in a cell with felons! If James K. Polk is elected, Dorr is free!

PIPE!

Look out for Pipe and Pipelayers on Friday! See that the Federal judges do not receive the votes of beardless boys, as was the case in Cadiz township at the State election. One of the youths, we are informed, has decamped, having learned that the Democrats were gathering forces to have him prosecuted. Watch the Pipes!

READ, FREEMEN!

BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION.

It is now perfectly evident that the cry of the Federal Roorbacks about "BRITISH GOLD," is the felon's cry of "catch thief," to divert public attention from their own Heaven-daring infamy. The Harrisburgh Union has given a withering exposition of the last attempt of the British Federal Whigs, to bribe the Democracy of Pennsylvania into the support of HENRY CLAY.

Proof of the Fact!

We have been placed in possession of undeniable proof, says the Union, that the Federalists are flooding the country with MONEY, in order to BRIBE voters into the support of Henry Clay. The following is a literal copy of a letter written by WILLIAM B. REED, the Federal Attorney of the late Bank, to a fellow-whig of the interior. Mr. Reed will not DARE to deny its authenticity. What think you, Fellow-Democrats, of this infamous attempt of the Money Power to corrupt you with GOLD? Will you not rush to the ballot-boxes, and prove your contempt of the men that would thus BUY you, as cattle are purchased at noon-day in the market? Here is

MR. REED'S LETTER.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17, 1844.

"DEAR SIR:—Mr. Buck has in hand for you ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS, to be applied as suggested in our conversation, PROVIDING CONVEYANCES FOR VOTERS, CANVASSING THE COUNTY, &c. He will send it to you, and we rely on you for its judicious and effective expenditure, and its effect. Lehigh MUST do better. We are all in high spirits.

WILLIAM B. REED.

To ———, Esq., Allentown, Pa.

A beautiful specimen of whig tactics, truly! We perceive by the official returns that in the county of Lehigh 3580 Democrats voted at the recent election. These it is proposed to buy up with the paltry sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS! This amount divided among the given number of men fixes the relative value of each at a fraction less than three cents and a half! Take this to heart, ye hard-fisted, honest-hearted farmers of the interior. Three cents and a half, per head, is the price attached to you by the Bank Lordlings of the city! Shame, shame, shame!

WILL HENRY CLAY

Receive the Electoral vote of Ohio!

A friend of ours, residing in Mansfield, Richland county, an aged and highly respectable man writes us as follows: "It is worthy of remark, that a number of circumstances have operated in favor of the election of Mr. Bartley, that cannot be brought up in aid of H. Clay. Mr. Bartley is a somewhat prominent member of the Methodist church, and has a son-in-law who is rather a popular preacher in that church; therefore a great number of democratic Methodists cast their votes in favor of Mr. Bartley, who cannot be induced to sanction the flagitious immoralities of Henry Clay, by casting their votes in favor of that 'embodiment' of Whig principles, British predilections, moral turpitude, and political chicanery. Again it is understood, that Mr. Bartley's views on the subject of slavery preponderate in favor of abolitionism, therefore he received a strong support from the liberty party—and to these fortuitous circumstances is Mr. Bartley indebted for his election—neither of which can, by any possibility, be brought in to aid the election of H. Clay. Nay more, no conscientious or really moral man, can cast his vote in favor of an individual whose flagitious iniquities are as notorious as the sun at noon-day;—and although J. K. Polk may receive but slight support from the liberty party, yet it is impossible that any honest abolitionist, or really pious man, can cast his vote in favor of H. Clay—the marvelous humbug tales of Cassius M. Clay relative to H. Clay's abolition inkings—and the preposterous certificates of his supple, clerical and political charms, as to the good moral character of their patron and boon companion, to the contrary notwithstanding. Hence, every intelligent man in this state must feel perfectly confident, that Ohio will go for POLK and DALLAS by a large majority. And that they will be elected by triumphant majorities there cannot remain a doubt.

NOTE.—The clergyman who would certify to the good moral character of H. Clay, acts well the part of Satan's vicegerent on earth, and must be a base traitor to the master whom he professes to serve."

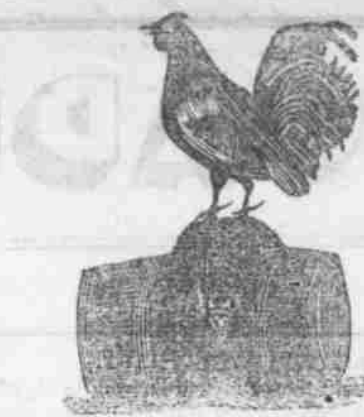

OUR RANKS ARE OPEN!

In 1840, there were many Democrats who voted for General Harrison, and occasionally since then have noted with the Federal party; but now cannot go Clay—or as the Rev. Mr. Forsyth says, "he is too bitter a pill for them to swallow." To all such we would say, come back!—come back!—our ranks are open to receive you, and you will find warm hearts to greet you to the Democratic army:—

"Woe! in the Democratic ranks,
For hearts beat high, and hands are ready,
To greet old friends who return,
And hail them too with many a cheer;
What though, lost brothers! one by one,
You left us, 'midst the battle's din,
Now, welcome back! shine out bright sun,
Take up your arms! WHEELS!"

KEEP COOL!

Democrats, keep cool on Friday; but be vigilant from morning till night. Make no unnecessary noise, engage in no discussions, but see that every Democrat is out and votes. Keep in good humor, crack jokes and laugh at them when made by others, but don't let the coons steal a march upon you. They are cunning, sneaking animals, and must be watched!

HUZZA FOR ARKANSAS!

Whig Roorback Forgeries again blown up.

The whig papers, says the Ohio Statesman, have been publishing news from Arkansas long before they had a single return!—Honest Country! The election took place on the 7th inst. We have the Little Rock Banner of the 9th, giving returns from seven counties, some whig strong holds, which show a Democratic majority on Governor of 390, and on Congressmen, 488. The "pirate" candidate (as they call the independent) for Governor, only getting 215 votes. The Banner says:—

"ELECTION RETURNS.

"By delaying our publication a day, we are enabled to present our readers the following news from several counties—news which is cheering to the heart of every Democrat; showing us, that our glorious cause is going on conquering and to conquer—that where we have not triumphantly carried our ticket, we have cut down the old whig majorities to a mere trifle."

So much for whig news in advance of the mails! If the "Pirate" candidate does not do better in other portions of the State not heard from, Durr, dem., is elected Governor by a large majority.—The Banner themselves say as follows:—

"KEEP UP THE FIRE.

"Let no Democrat put off his harness, or lay down his arms. We have fought and won a great battle. What if we have lost Pulaski county, by a small and greatly reduced whig majority; we have carried the State TRIUMPHANTLY, and, we trust, by a GREATER DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY than was ever obtained before. But more remains to be done.—Another battle is to be fought in November; and in that it is our duty, and it should be our pride and pleasure, to win a greater victory still.—Let us, then, keep up the fire, until the 4th day of November, when, by one vigorous and determined charge, we shall extirpate the last remnant of whiggery from the land. Then we may rest, for the enemy will be destroyed, and our country will be safe; but, until then, let no Democrat think of rest. Arkansas is safe for Polk and Dallas, we know. But let it be a matter of pride, with us, to make her so, by the largest majority she has ever given."

Democrats of Ohio, push on the column.

VICTORY! VICTORY!!

The Democracy of Baltimore Erect!
"One victory treads upon another's heels,
So quick they follow."

The Democracy know no such word as defeat. Last year the feds of Baltimore city elected their Mayor by 306 maj.; but 4 days of coin victories are departed. On the 20th an Election for Mayor was held again, and DAVIS, the Democratic candidate, was elected by a majority of 503 votes which is a Democratic gain of 803, in the Monumental City in one year!

Huzza, huzza! the country's risen,
But not for Clay and Frelinghuysen."

South Carolina Election.

There was no mail received in this city to-day from South of Richmond, Virginia. It is of little or no consequence in regard to the South Carolina elections, as it seems, from the returns we received yesterday, that the Democratic party is running by itself there. We have not seen the name "whig" among any of the returns; and we have seen returns from districts which elect three members of Congress. Messrs. Holmes, Rhett, and Burt are re-elected to Congress "without opposition." When Mr. Pickens said, at the Baltimore convention, that whigs were as scarce and as far apart in South Carolina as milestones, we thought it nothing more than a strong figure; but the returns prove what he said to be a "fixed fact."—Globe.

"BRITISH GOLD."

If we were as grave as a Stoic, we would occasionally be tempted to shake our sides as hard with irresistible laughter, as ever did Sir Jack Fullstaff, in reading the Federal newspapers of the day. The editors of these sheets must either be criminally ignorant or villainously corrupt, or else they would not impose such abominable trash upon community, that finds a place into the columns of their wretched hebdomadals.

A little obscure and filthy Federal sheet, published in this place, by a fellow, whose only claim to notoriety is his deplorable ignorance, unblushing impudence, lunatic craziness, and villainous rascality, is filled week after week with the silliest, weakest and most puerile articles that ever came from the pen of a national or thinking being, in regard to "British Gold."

The jackass who contributes articles to that sheet, which are published as editorial, has asserted and undertaken to prove that the British Manufacturers have sent over gold to this country, for the purpose of having printed and circulated Free Trade Tracts, to break down the present tariff. But so far from proving any thing of the kind, the writer has only proved himself —an ass!

As to British Gold being circulated among the Democracy of the United States, for any purpose whatever, it is as false as Tartarus. We indignantly repel the charge as gratuitous and unfounded. No person would iterate such a contemptible assertion, unless he held communion with the "Father of Lies," and wished to assume the regal robes in Plato's Empire, after "shuffling off this mortal coil." "British Gold," quotha! Who in this community—who in the State of Ohio—who in the broad Union—has received an ounce of "British Gold," unless he was a Federal coon, to pay for his services in opposing the annexation of Texas, or writing essays favorable to Assumption of the State Debts? Who? Who is he? Where is he? Who has ever received any of these "Free Trade Tracts?" We never have, and we honestly believe that no such publications were circulated in this county, unless the supporters of HENRY CLAY would impose them fraudulently upon the public, as they did "Roorback's Travels," for electioneering purposes, and to operate against the election of JAMES K. POLK.

Out upon such gross hypocrisy, political chicanery and villainous deception! Democrats receiving "British Gold," indeed! Bah! The only party in the country that has any affinity in politics, or congeniality in sentiment with Victoria's Tory subjects, is the British Federal Whig party, that is now endeavoring by frauds and forgeries to place Henry Clay in the Presidential chair. 67 That man, be his politics what they may, who would receive a mite of "British Gold" for any corrupting purposes, should be marked out as an object "for scorn to point her slow, unerring finger at"—should be kicked around creation by the ugliest negro in Christendom—should be sewed up in a sack with warps, toads, skunks, coons, rattlesnakes and hyenas, and be suspended like Haman, between the earth and heaven!

Is worth a whole eternity in bondage."

Democrats! Liberty and Slavery are before you—which will you choose? As you love your country—as you cherish her sacred institutions—as you wish to preserve the American Constitution, unimpaired from encroachments and mutilations, do not vote for Henry Clay on Friday, but cast your suffrages, every man of you, for JAMES K. POLK, the incorruptible Democrat, the "young hickory" of Tennessee, the moral and pure-minded statesman.

The Federal Party

In Ohio do not seriously think that Clay will be elected President; but still they will make a desperate effort to carry the State, so as to keep up their organization for State and local purposes. Democrats! only give us that GAIN OF ONE to a township, and the coon is laid out as cool as a cucumber in Ohio! Will you not?
